IMPROVE WITH IMPROV

with Margot Escott, LCSW

Margot Escott LCSW is a Toastmaster and an improv professional who has been teaching and performing improv in Southwest Florida for the past five years. For over twenty-five years, she has presented workshops and seminars on "Therapeutic Value of Humor and Play" on a national level.

Learning Improvisational Comedy is an invaluable for Toastmasters members and groups. These techniques enhance spontaneity and improve your ability to think on our feet. Like Toastmasters, Improv offers an welcoming environment where members feel respected and able to trust.

MARGOT ESCOTT'S IMPROV FOR TOASTMASTERS WORKSHOPS WILL TEACH YOU:

- The "yes, and..." concept and how to use it in daily life and as a Toastmaster
- The basic "rules of Improv" and how they help build a better speech
- Additional tools for your communication toolkit
- How to stimulate creativity
- Speaking is collaborative; Improv utilizes partners, audience
- How Improv sharpens your listening skills

Many toastmaster clubs in the US and internationally now devote one hour each month to work with a professional improviser to learn these skills. And one club, Improv Masters San Diego Toastmasters, is a dedicated Toastmaster group of Improvisors!

"Margot Escott gives you all the tools to be an expert improvisational speaker; how far you go is up to you" - Christopher Pritchard DTM
